

Inslee for America
Constituency Organizer for Labor

Inslee for America is seeking a Constituency Organizer to engage and activate the labor community to support Governor Inslee's presidential bid.

Position Summary:

The Labor Organizer will oversee outreach and engagement to labor leaders and will work closely with the Political Director and policy staff to design outreach programs that engage and organize within labor communities to create policies that address specific constituency needs. The Labor Organizer will serve as a liaison to key coalition partners and will often act as a campaign surrogate at events and in policy discussions. The Labor Organizer will need to have the ability to design and drive an independent program, coordinate and facilitate outreach and action among a series of high level staff, track and deepen a wide variety of relationships, and more.

Job responsibilities include:

- Developing thoughtful and strategic relationships across the country with constituency leaders and organizations in the labor community
- Creating and executing a voter contact plan that fully integrates every department of the campaign. The plan will include creating strategies for engaging constituency leaders and organizations
- Expanding the network of Inslee supporters through outreach and organizing
- Creating momentum by running high visibility events such as canvasses, phone banks, policy rollouts, press conferences and more
- Training staff on policies and outreach with labor
- Coordinating with campaign leadership on communications, digital, and voter contact strategies with labor
- Aligning campaign work to ensure we maximize the talents and skills of our team, community leaders and strategic partners
- Managing campaign events

Minimum requirement and job skills:

- Experience creating and executing strategic plans, and an ability to advise and coach others on executing the plan
- Solution-oriented problem-solver who can work independently, prioritize requests, and manage people and issues
- Experience working with volunteers and effectively managing a volunteer program

- Experience working with organized labor
- Strong planning and organizational skills
- Strong passion for progressive causes and issues – especially climate change.
- Willingness to work evenings and weekends
- Travel is required

This position reports to the Political Director

We're looking for a passionate, hard-working individual who is willing to go the extra mile to make the difference for a progressive national campaign. You will be expected to work on some evenings and weekends. You are calm under pressure, comfortable in a fast-paced environment, committed to meeting deadlines, a good communicator, and detail-oriented. Women and people of color are strongly encouraged to apply.

To apply, please send resume and cover letter to insleejobs@gmail.com with the subject line "Constituency Organizer for Labor." Applicants will be considered on a rolling basis.

Salary

Salary ranges between $4,500 - $6,000 per month, and is commensurate with experience.

Location: Job is based in Seattle, Washington. Travel for the position is required.
